LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 6, 1868.

The proceedings in the impeachment court last Tuesday were very interesting. At half-past 12 the Chief Justice took the chair, and the Sergeant-at-Arms opened the court by proclamation in the usual form, commanding all persons to keep silent. The Managers (Bingham, Boutwell, Butler, Logan, Stevens, Wilson and Williams,) entered, and took seats at the table on the left of the Chief Justice. Then came the members of House, and the President's counsel, Messrs. Stanbery, Evarts, Nelson, Curtis and Groesbeck. Mr. Wilson, on the part of the Managers, took the floor, and submitted a bundle of documents, which they wished to offer as evidence. A few minutes before 1 o'clock Gen. Butler called the first witness, W. J. McDonald, chief clerk of the Senate, and the oath was administered to him by the Secretary, Mr. J. W. Forney. He testified that he served a copy of the resolution of the Senate, refusing to concur in the removal of Secretary Stanton, on the President at the Executive Mansion, at 10 o'clock P. M., February 21st; and also the resolution refusing to concur in the suspension of Mr. Stanton, at 9 o'clock, January 13th. J. W. Jones, one of Forney's clerks, was next called, and testified that he served a copy of the Senate's resolution on Gen. Lorenzo Thomas, on the night of February 21st, at a masked ball in this city. Thomas was masked, but was discovered by his shoulder-straps. Jones was a badly scared witness, and appeared to be much relieved when he was dismissed. E. C. Creecy, appointed clerk in the Treasury, was the next witness. His testimony showed that the President had recognized the validity of the Tenure of Office Act, by changing the form of commissions in the Treasury Department since the passage of the law. Mr. Burt Van Horn, member of Congress from New York, was then called, and testified that he, in company with several other Congressmen, was in Secretary Stanton's office, the 22d of February, when Lorenzo Thomas came and demanded possession of the War office. Mr. J. K. Moorehead, member of Congress from Pennsylvania, was then examined, and corroborated Mr. Van Horn's testimony, having been present on the occasion above referred to. Mr. W. H. Burleigh, delegate from Dakota, who was also at the War Office, was then placed on the stand. Gen. Butler asked him if, in a conversation the evening before, Gen. Thomas had not declared that he would drive Mr. Stanton out and take the Office by force. Stanbery objected to this question. The Chief Justice decided the testimony admissible. Senator Drake, who did not object to the ruling in this instance, here rose and made a point of order that all questions should be submitted to the Senate for decision, taking the ground that the Chief Justice had no right to decide for the Senate. Mr. Chase rose and stated that he understood it to be his duty to decide all questions of law and evidence, the Senate having the power to reverse his decisions by vote. Senator Drake appealed from the decision of the Chief Justice, and demanded the decision of the Senate. He was called to order by Senator Johnson, who made the point that the question was not debatable. The Chief Justice decided that it was debatable by the Managers and the President's counsel. Here a lengthy debate followed, participated in by Butler, Bingham, Boutwell and Evarts, the Managers, in whose favor the decision had been made, taking strong ground against the right of the Chief Justice to make a decision. At the close of Mr. Butler's remarks, the Chief Justice again stated his position. Senator Drake demanded the decision of the Senate. The Chief Justice declared the Senator out of order; the Senator persisted, and the Chief Justice again and again declared him out of order. Senator Conkling asked for the reading of the rule of the Senate regulating the manner of making decisions, and it was read by Senator Howard. Mr. Bingham then spoke, and was followed by Mr. Boutwell, who closed for the Managers, after which Mr. Evarts made a few remarks. Senator Wilson then moved that the Senate retire for consultation, which was carried by 26 to 25—the Chief Justice giving the casting vote. The Senate, headed by the Chief Justice, then retired to the ladies' reception room. A debate of more than three hours followed, some twenty Senators taking part. Senator Henderson moved to adopt a rule conforming to the views of the Chief Justice. Senator Sumner offered an amendment that the Chief Justice is not a Senator, and has not the right to vote. The amendment was lost. 22 yeas to 26 nays—Senators Williams and Corbett both voting yes. Senator Henderson's resolution was then adopted, sustaining the Chief Justice by a vote of 25 to 19. At 20 minutes after six the Senate returned to the chamber, and the Chief Justice stated the result of the consultation. The galleries had thinned out in the meantime. The court then adjourned. Gen. Butler examined the witnesses, and took the leading part for the Managers, Mr. Evarts performing a similar service for the President's counsel. Bingham and Logan are both far superior to Butler in oratory—that brilliant, fiery eloquence which charms an audience, as but few living men can—but in legal knowledge, and the ability to question witnesses, browbeat and take advantage of his opponents, Butler has no equal among the Managers or the President's counsel, none in either branch of Congress, and, perhaps, not one in America. He is more than a match, single-handed, for all of the President's counsel.

Wednesday, April 1st, the impeachment proceedings were opened with the usual formality, the audience consisting of 52 Senators, nearly 200 C[illegible] the diplomatic representatives of nearly all foreign nations, and about 1,000 citizens. Many of the wives and daughters of Senators and Representatives, and, in fact, nearly all the leading ladies in the fashionable society of Washington, were present, as they have been nearly every day since the trial commenced. Senator Sumner offered a resolution, in the nature of a correction of the journal, that the Chief Justice having given the casting vote on the previous day on a question where the Senate was equally divided, such vote was without authority of the Constitution of the United States. The resolution was voted down—21 yeas to 27 nays. Senator Williams voted yes and Senator Corbett voted no.

Mr. Burleigh was again called to the witness stand, and Gen. Butler proceeded to question him in reference to what Gen. Thomas said about taking the War Office by force on the evening of the 21st of February. Mr. Stanbery again objected to the question, and another lengthy debate ensued between the Managers and the President's counsel—Butler, Bingham and Boutwell argued in favor of admitting the evidence, and Stanbery, Curtis and Evarts against it. The Senate voted to admit the testimony—39 yeas to 11 nays—none but Democrats voting in the negative. Mr. Burleigh testified that Gen. Thomas informed him that he intended to take possession of the War Office by force, having been directed to take possession of it by the President. Samuel Wilkenson testified to the same facts. Then came J. W. Karsener, a Delaware Democrat, from the same county where Thomas formerly lived. He was questioned at great length by the counsel for both sides, and his statements of the conversation between himself and Thomas, created a great deal of merriment among the audience. He testified that Thomas said he intended to kick that fellow (Stanton) out. At ten minutes after 5 o'clock the Court adjourned, and the Senate held a short executive session.

Thursday, April 2, the Court met at 12 o'clock, and after the reading of the journal, Karsener was re-called and examined by Stanbery.

Mr. Thomas W. Ferry, member of Congress from Michigan, was next sworn. He testified to the conversation between Gen. Thomas and Secretary Stanton at the War Office on the morning of February 22d. Gen. Emory, Commander of the Military Department of Washington, then testified in reference to the President's conversation with him about the army, in the course of which the President pronounced the law requiring all orders to pass through the General of the army unconstitutional. Mr. Wilson then submitted some documentary evidence, including General Grant's letter to the President, which was finally admitted, after argument—nine Republicans voting with the Democrats to exclude it. Col. G. W. Wallace, of the army, then testified. Mr. W. E. Chandler, ex-Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, was next called. After considerable skirmishing, the Senate voted to exclude the testimony on the ground that it was not applicable to the case. The vote was 22 yeas to 27 nays—Corbett voting in the affirmative and Williams in the negative. The next witness was Mr. C. A. Tinker, telegraph operator, whose testimony, after a long argument, was admitted, showing that the President had conspired with Southern men to defeat the laws of Congress. At 5 o'clock the Court adjourned, the Chief Justice giving the casting vote.

Friday, April 3d, the Senate met at 12 o'clock, and Mr. Wade immediately gave place to the Chief Justice. After modifying a rule, the examination of witnesses was commenced and continued all day. Gen. Butler re-called Mr. Tinker of the Western Union Telegraph Company, who testified to sending certain dispatches. Then J. B. Sheridan, stenographer, was called, and testified that he was present in the East Room of the Executive Mansion on the 18th of August, 1866, and with the assistance of two other stenographers, reported the President's speech, which was one of the documents sent through the Western Union Telegraph office to the Associated Press. J. O. Clephane and F. H. Smith, the other reporters, were next examined. Smith is at present official reporter of the House. The reporters testified that they wrote out the speech before leaving the White House, from the original notes. They corrected not only the grammar, but in many instances changed the language to render the sense clear and make it readable, but they did not change the meaning or substance of any part of it. After they had finished it Col. Moore, the President's private secretary, revised the manuscript, erasing and inserting whole lines and sentences to make it read better. It was then sent to the telegraph office and telegraphed to all parts of the country. The editor of the Chronicle refused to take the report after it had been dressed up by Col. Moore, but insisted on having the speech as Andy made it, "with all its imperfections;" and Clephane, who had engaged to report it for the Chronicle, wrote out another copy from his notes, giving a verbatim report, with the exception that he corrected the grammar. After a great deal of wrangling between Butler and Evarts the examination of these witnesses closed and Col. Moore was examined and testified to making the corrections. Butler read the manuscript copy of the speech without the corrections. W. L. Hudson of the Cleveland (Ohio) Leader, testified to the accuracy of his report of the President's speech at Cleveland on the 23d of September, 1866. D. C. McEwen, of the New York World, who accompanied the President while "swinging round the circle," and R. B. Stark, of the Cleveland Herald, were next examined. They all testified to the accuracy of their reports of the Cleveland speech, admitting, however, that they took the liberty of improving the grammar, and sometimes the phraseology. The New York World was Democratic, and the Cleveland Herald a Johnson Republican. Some called it "Post office Republican," said the witness, because its editor had the post office at the time. The report in the Leader was finally admitted as evidence by a vote of 35 to 11—Senators Trumbull, Howe and Fowler voting with the Democrats to exclude it. The report in the Cleveland Herald was then admitted. At 5 o'clock the court adjourned, and the Senate held a session, discussing for some time a proposition to admit the reporters of the Associated Press, which furnishes about 840 papers, to a seat on the floor of the Senate, but without coming to a vote adjourned.

Saturday, April 4th, the Senate met at 11 o'clock, one hour earlier than usual, and spent most of the morning hour in considering Senator Sherman's resolution to abolish the ticket system, and throw open the galleries to the public, but did not reach a vote. At noon the Chief Justice took the chair just vacated by Mr. Wade, the Managers, President's counsel and a portion of the members of the House appeared, as usual, and after the journal had been read, the examination of witnesses commenced and continued throughout the day, interspersed with any amount of sparring between Butler and Evarts. Butler first examined L. L. Walbridge, who was with Johnson on his western tour and reported his speech at St. Louis, on the 8th of September, 1865, for the Missouri Democrat. Butler then put in evidence the speech as reported in that paper, and it was read by the Clerk. The most offensive portions of this speech are set forth in the tenth article of impeachment. J. A. Dean testified to the correctness of his report of the same speech as published in the St. Louis Times. There were two speeches, in fact—one delivered at the Lindell Hotel and the other at the Southern Hotel. As witness was reporting for a paper of strong Democratic politics, he testified that, as a matter of course he corrected the inaccuracies of grammar, but otherwise reported the speeches verbatim.

R. S. Chew, Chief Clerk in the State Department, was next examined. During the thirty odd years of his employment in the State Department, commissions (which are prepared there for the State, Treasury and various other departments), always read, "The said officer to hold office during the pleasure of the President of the United States for the time being;" but since the passage of the tenure of office act these words have been left out and the following substituted: "Subject to the conditions prescribed by law." The forms of commissions were put in evidence, and also the President's letter of August 14th, 1867, notifying the Secretary of the Treasury that he had suspended Edwin M. Stanton from the office of Secretary of War "in compliance with the 8th section" of the tenure of office act. Butler then put in evidence the letters which passed between President John Adams and Timothy Pickering, Secretary of State, in 1800; also the journal of the State Department of Monday, May 12, 1800, and Tuesday, May 13th, showing that President Adams, after Pickering had refused to resign, sent the name of John Marshall to the Senate before he notified Mr. Pickering of the nomination, and that the Senate "resolved that they do advise and consent to the appointment according to the nomination." Butler then stated that the case on the part of the House of Representatives was substantially closed. Curtis then asked, on behalf of the President's counsel, three days in which to prepare their proofs. The request was granted by a vote of 37 to 10, and the court adjourned to meet again next Thursday, when the testimony for the defence will commence. Without transacting any legislative business the Senate then adjourned. No legislative business was transacted in the House during the week.

The House Committee on the Pacific Railroad, of which Mr. Mallory is a member, ag[illegible] d some time ago to report in favor of a branch from Humboldt, Nevada, to Portland, Oregon, but the impeachment trial has delayed the action of the Committee. Corbett, Williams and Mallory have been working earnestly for the bill, apparently with very good success so far. However, it is becoming manifest that the Northern Pacific Railroad men, who are strong in both houses, and, what is almost as important, well represented in the lobby, are jealous of this branch, and are secretly working against it, and may possibly cause it to go over to another session. But, if they pursue this course, Mallory, who is favorable to the Northern road, will not allow their bill to go out of his committee until they stop this dog in the manger policy. People who have never had experience in such matters, have no conception of the amount of pulling and hauling it takes to get a bill through Congress, especially when the measure is regarded as mainly beneficial to a single State, and that State has but one Representative in a body of some two hundred. Another disadvantage which our State labors under, is the fact that as soon as a Representative gets acquainted with the members and the business of legislation, gets his bills before the committees and gets fairly to work, another man is elected to his seat, who has to commence everything new again, and by the time he gets in a position to be of use to his constituents, he, in turn, goes out, and so on from Cong[illegible] to Congress, thus leaving the State (no matter how able the man may be,) virtually unrepresented all the time. The folly of this system ought to be apparent, in some day[illegible], to every merchant, farmer, and mechanic in Oregon, (aspiring politicians can't be expected to see it,) but it can only be fully understood by those who see the effects of it here. The people of Oregon should re-elect a man some time in the course of human events, if for no other reason than to convince the Representatives of Eastern States that they have some regard for their interests, and actually desire to have something accomplished in the way of legislation for their State. Pengra, Dowell, Cummins, Ex-Gov. Curry, Tilton and your correspondent, have done what they could to assist the Pacific coast delegation, in getting through the bill for the Oregon Branch of the Pacific Railroad, and if it should not pass this session it is certainly in a fair way to succeed at the next session. Things which the People Remember.

Whatever petty reverses the Union party meets in unimportant local elections, the settled conviction that the Democratic party cannot be safely trusted with power, must insure the triumph of the former and the defeat of the latter organization, in the approaching national contest. It is not yet forgotten that for years before the Democratic overthrow in 1860, disunion was threatened by the ruling faction of that party whenever there was danger of its defeat. It is not yet forgotten that when its defeat occurred, this threat was carried into execution. By that party, the rightfulness of disunion, in case of the success of any party representing the convictions of the Northern people, was steadfastly maintained. By that party, when Abraham Lincoln was elected, rebellion was at once commenced. At that time, though the self-styled "Union Democracy" had control of every branch of the Government, not the smallest effort, not the feeblest movement, was made to suppress the outbreak and save the country from dismemberment. On the contrary, the Democratic President and Attorney General maintained that the Government had no constitutional power to suppress it; the Democratic Senate openly argued that the rebellion was justifiable; Democratic Governors, including Whiteaker of Oregon, refused to sanction any measure of coercion; Democratic meetings and conventions and presses gave the rebellion open encouragement; a former Democratic President wrote to Jeff Davis assuring him that the fighting would not be at the South but in the streets of the North; a Democratic Mayor of the great city of New York co-operated with a Democratic Secretary of War to send forward arms and munitions as rapidly as possible to supply the rebels with means for making war on the Union; a [illegible] Democratic Vice President went South and fought for the rebel cause, and every effort on the part of the Government to maintain its rightful authority against the insurgents was resisted and embarrassed by Northern Democrats. They remonstrated and voted against the enlistment of troops, against the draft, against confiscation, against the raising of money, and threw every obstacle they could in the way of those who were struggling for national unity and the supremacy of the Constitution. By this opposition they prolonged the war, depreciated the public credit, caused the sacrifice of thousands of additional lives and augmented the public debt by thousands of millions. We do not allude to these things because there is danger of their being forgotten; we speak of them to show why it is that the people deem it unsafe to entrust the Democratic party with power. As these things have not been forgotten, the triumph of that party in the great contest now so near at hand, is impossible.

Frequent mention has been made in the dispatches of late of the island of Alta Vela, and something connected with it has been dragged into the impeachment trial. The President, it is stated, declined to send a war steamer to take possession of the island, and this action occasioned a quarrel with Jerry Black, one of whose clients is interested in the matter. The island lies in the Caribbean sea immediately south, and at no great distance from St. Domingo. It appears that a citizen of Baltimore claims to be the owner of the island which is valuable for its guano. The Dominican Government also claims it. Black is attorney for the Baltimore claimant, with the promise of a fee of half a million dollars. It is alleged that while this claimant was in possession of the island to which he claimed title by discovery, the Dominican Government dispossessed him and put it in the hands of another American citizen. This, as nearly as we can get at it from the meagre information at hand, is the nature of the controversy about the island. By this explanation we think the dispatches will be rendered intelligible.

The Copperheads have formed great expectations of a national victory, basing their hopes on insignificant local triumphs. The Cincinnati Commercial takes off this bragging as follows:

> It is so easy to deceive ourselves, but so painful to be awakened from a pleasant delusion. The formulas of algebra cannot be applied to elections. The logic of Euclid is too precise for the uses of statistics. He who reasons that the result of a municipal skirmish foreshadows the result of a State contest, is as great a fool as the idiot who fished for pike with a pin hook, because he had caught minnows with them. It will not do to estimate the general by the special result. It does not follow that a Democratic gain of ten, in a village with one grocery and a meeting house, [illegible] a Democratic gain of ten thousand in a State of several hundred stores and churches.
> Yet Democratic statisticians have devoted themselves to this sort of reasoning for years, with greater labor than, better expended, would have secured their eternal salvation. The sum of it all was, that they had just missed a great victory this year, and were sure of it the next. They had the figures for it. Hadn't Mugginsville gone Democratic by an increased majority? Hadn't Hardpan elected a town constable, a road supervisor and a school trustee—all Democrats? And Squabbletown, an Abolition and Republican stronghold—behold! its overshadowing Radicalism has withered as a gourd.

Proposals are advertised for by the Post Office Department for carrying the mails daily (Sundays excepted) from Salt Lake City to the Dalles. The distance is divided into three routes; the first from Salt Lake City to Boise City; the second from Boise City to Umatilla, and the third, from Umatilla to the Dalles. Proposals will be received until the 10th of June, and the contracts are to commence on the 1st October, 1868, and end on the 30th June, 1870.

The "Democratic" party which we are to meet at the polls in June and November is the same party which three years ago openly declared, and the same party which still believes, that the Constitution was violated in putting down the rebellion.

By Overland Mail.

The following articles are from the Chicago Tribune of April 9th

A LOOK AHEAD.

From present prospects, Chicago will have direct railway connection with Denver within a year at most, giving her for two years, if not longer the lion's share of the rich trade of Colorado. This connection will also, for a time at least, give us the business of New Mexico. The arrangements of the Union Pacific Railway Company to push their line westward during the coming summer, are on the most gigantic scale. Fort Bridger, some three hundred and fifty miles west of Cheyenne, is the point which it has been determined to reach. The trade of Utah and Montana is for all the future secure to our city.

But we wish now to invite the attention of our business men to another route across the continent. Few of them suspect that we have to lay railway communication across the continent to the mouth of the Columbia, with the exception of about five hundred and fifty miles of land carriage. The route is as follows: By the Northwestern Railway to Sioux City. Thence by the Fort Benton line of steamers to a point in Montana, only about three hundred miles from the navigable waters of the North Branch of the Columbia. The pass in the Rock Mountains is one of the lowest, and the approaches on either side are superior to any other. The summit is only five thousand feet above the sea, while Bridger and the South Pass are more than seven. From the point we speak of on the Lewis or North Branch of the Columbia, the river is navigable for a long distance westward to another point where, after a portage of two hundred and fifty miles the navigable waters of the Lower Columbia are reached, which are already vexed by the steamers of the Oregon Navigation Company. We repeat that the building of five hundred and fifty miles of railway on the Northern Pacific route, or stocking it with stages and express wagons, would give us a new and most important route for the mail, travel and express goods entirely across the continent. To those who choose to avail themselves of this rich opening for a gigantic and most profitable enterprise, we are assured that the Oregon Steam Navigation Company will meet them at the headwaters of the Missouri, the Columbia or upon the summit of the Rocky Mountains, as may be deemed best. That company is one of the richest companies of the Pacific coast. As far back as 1865 it was doing an immense trade with Idaho, and was rapidly extending its lines eastward to the mountains. We shall be mistaken if within the coming season a company from our side does not meet them half way, and thus open to our city the trade of Idaho, one of the richest mineral districts in the nation, and along a portion of it more than one territory as important and fruitful in agricultural products as Utah. So rich a field for American enterprise cannot long remain unoccupied.

"GREAT DEMOCRATIC GAINS."

The Times publishes a startling display head nearly half a column long, about "tremendous Democratic gains everywhere," "reaction still progressing," etc. But after reading the succeeding despatches we fail to discover where the gains come in. It boasts of the Copperheads having carried Milwaukee and Dubuque. If they could not carry those strongholds where would they expect to win? There were several important election returns omitted from the columns of the Times. For example, the city of Madison, capital of Wisconsin, always considered good for 400 to 500 Copperhead majority, has gone Republican, electing David Atwood Mayor. Atwood is the editor of the radical, impeachment, anti Doolittle Journal. How about the reaction in Madison?

St. Paul has been the stronghold of Copperheadism in Minnesota—the Celtic element bearing sway. But Dr. Stewart, Republican, is elected Mayor by 375 majority over Paine, the regular Copperhead nominee. Stewart is in favor of impeachment and reconstruction on the Congressional plan, and Paine is opposed to both. What about the "reaction" in the capital of Minnesota?

Then, to come a little nearer home, Peoria, the second city in Illinois in point of population, and one of the most reliable Copperhead towns in the State, has elected Mr. Brotherson Mayor, after a lively contest. The Mayor elect is strong for impeachment and reconstruction. On which side was the reaction in Peoria?

Down the river, below Peoria, is another Democratic stronghold—Pekin, which has just been swept by 200 majority by the "impeachers."

Kenosha, which went Democratic last year by 40, now elects the Republican ticket by 22 majority, and Racine, which is usually close, has gone Republican by over 200 majority.

The State of Wisconsin has gone Republican by six to seven thousand majority, without half an effort being put forth. Aside from the vote on the new constitution, which was no party test, the Republicans have swept Michigan by their usual majority.

But "look at Connecticut," says the Times. Well, look. English is re elected by 1,781 majority. Last year he had 987; gain, 794 in the whole State, in a vote of fully 100,000. The Republican gain in St. Paul is larger than the Democratic gain in Connecticut. Every man who has claimed to be a Republican at any time for the last three years, voted the Republican ticket. Our vote is larger by two thousand than it ever was before. The Republicans simply failed to outvote their opponents, reinforced by four or five thousand gentlemen who were imported from New York or recently manufactured into voters. Had there been no naturalizations since last spring, the previous Copperhead majority would have been wiped out and the Republican ticket elected by fully 1,000 majority. The Republicans carried some dozen towns which went "Democratic" last spring, and that accounts for their large majority in the Legislature, which secures to them a United States Senator to replace Copperhead Dixon. Outside of the single city of New Haven the Republican majority is 1,700 in the State, and the Copperhead majority in New Haven was made up of naturalizations and importations from New York during the month preceding the election. Take the spring elections altogether, including New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Arkansas, and they plainly portend a sweeping Republican victory next fall under the leadership of Grant.

THE WISCONSIN ELECTION.

The election in Wisconsin has resulted more favorably for the Republicans than was generally expected. Judges Dixon and Paine, the Republican candidates, have been elected by majorities quite as large as we had dared to hope for. Local issues were numerous. Road, town and county taxes absorbed, to a great extent, the interest in many places, and the election of a Supervisor was not unfrequently of greater moment than that of a Supreme Judge. The subject of farm mortgages, one of the most perplexing and distressing of all questions, was pushed upon the judicial election, with a view to defeat the Republican candidates. The Republican party has had control of the State government and policy of Wisconsin for ten years, it has had control of the local policy of a majority of the towns and counties in the State for the same time. These spring elections are the occasions when the people lay aside party ties, and give their local officials a thorough overhauling. The result is, that the party which has been in office a long time suffers heavily in these apparently trivial elections, when the mistakes or sins of the local officers are redressed or revenged. Notwithstanding all these facts, the Republicans of Wisconsin have increased the majority by which one year ago they elected Governor Fairchild. The re-election of Judges Dixon and Paine by this increased majority and under the peculiarly embarrassing circumstances, destroys whatever faint hopes the Democracy may have had of carrying the State in November, and leaves no doubt that Wisconsin will give Grant at least 20,000 majority.

A CONSERVATIVE VIEW OF IMPEACHMENT.—One of the ablest and most thoughtful of our statesmen writes to the editor of the Washington Chronicle as follows:

> Up to the 21st ult. I was opposed to impeachment, but the President left me no alternative, and I rejoice at the unanimity of our friends in the House. It is a perfectly clear case. I cannot see a single place for doubt as to the illegality of Thomas' appointment, even if there was room for it on the question of Stanton's removal; but to me that seems equally clear, inasmuch as the Senate was in session. I hope the Republican Senators will be equally unanimous in convicting. Conviction will restore peace and quiet to the whole country, give confidence to the capitalists and business men, and insure a return of prosperity, and strengthen us immensely as a party. An acquittal would be the signal for fresh outbreaks in every part of the rebel States, and by prolonging the dead lock would be disastrous to every kind of business; the uncertainties of the future would frighten capitalists and check commerce, manufactures and every kind of business; at the same time it would render the result of the fall elections extremely doubtful. I hope there may be no flinching on the part of a single Republican Senator, and that the trial may be hastened as rapidly as possible, consistent with a due regard to the forms of such proceedings and justice.

Dr. Benson writes the Advocate from New York, April 1st, that "the removal of the President is considered a foregone conclusion."

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The mail steamer Golden City arrived this morning.

The steamer Arizona left New York to-day, with 1,100 passengers and seven hundred tons of freight.

In the case of D. T. Downer vs. Empire Gold and Silver Mining Company, judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $393,000 principal, and $5,659 50 interest.

The patent coupon tickets and nippers went into use to-day on the different street railroads.

A fire occurred in Carr's stables, on Vallejo street. Loss about $3,000.

The Examiner Dispatch learns from good authority that all the delegates to the Democratic National Convention from this State are for George H. Pendleton for President, with the exception of ex Governor Bigler, who is decidedly in favor of the nomination of his excellency, Gov. Haight. The Convention has chosen Colonels Kewen and Henly electors for the State.

Money Market.

Legal tenders 71¼@72.

Gold opened in New York at 139⅞ and closed at 139¾.

Foreign Markets.

New York and Liverpool grain quotations unchanged.

Shipping.

Arrived—Steamer Ajax from Portland. Steamer Montana from Guaymas.

Produce Market.

Flour—To day we mark down prices 25c per barrel, with the remark that only in occasional instances is $7 50 obtained for extra. We quote superfine, hf sks, 190 lbs, at $6 25@6 50, qr sks at $6 50@6 75; extra hf sks at $7@7 25, qr sks at $7 25@7 50.

Wheat—Sales include 4,000 sks choice Santa Clara private, 300 sks good shipping at $2 40. We quote the market dull and prices nominal at $2 35@2 40 for shipping, and $2 45 for prime milling.

Barley—The lot of 1,100 sks feed sold yesterday for $1 50 was subsequently rejected. In the absence of any sales we quote the nominal range of the market at $1 45@1 55.

Oats—Although the principal holders are nominally asking $2 40@2 70, for small lots, others are willing to sell at a considerable decline from these figures, a lot of 1,800 good Oregon was offered yesterday at $2 30 with only $2 12½ bid. A fair range of the market would be $2 25@2 50.

THE STEAMER JOHN L. STEPHENS not lost but has arrived at Portland, and brought to KOHN & FISHEL, the largest and best assortment of Gentlemen's Spring and Summer Suits, the latest style, and of the best material that has been offered in this city for years. The Ladies have not been forgotten. They will find by an inspection of the stock just arrived that their wants have been anticipated by a selection of dry goods, the equal of which is not often presented here.

A HIGH OLD FIDDLER.—Music hath charms too soothe the savage breast, but its effect is not always soothing, as is evident from the excited manner in which a New York critic polishes off a noted fiddler. Who would have thought that a mere cat-gut artiste could have fiddled himself, in one short life, into such classic company? says the critic. "We might as well, while in the classic vein, regard him as an Orpheus in our Plutonian ies, at whom even the Ixionic wheel of criticism stands still, and the Tantalus of prurlency forgets its thirst. Only a fiddler, but full of organs and flutes—star blown and religious in that he rebuilds us of the cathedral of immensity and the everlasting worship without words." A high old fiddler, truly.

P RE FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship John L. Stephens, Wm. Metzger Commander, sailed for San F at 8 o'clock last evening, with the following list of passengers: Gen Alexander U S A, Capt Raymond U S A, G H Stalland, Prof Laudenslager, C A Burchart, J B pp, R J Bacon, F Jones, W A Baker, Jno T Knox, A Bougham, Mrs Barber, L Leibenhauer, B V Raechenberg, Miss L Stein, Miss V Francis, C A Splann and wife, Mrs Scmicker and child, Mrs McCoy and child, B Murphy, John P Walker, Samuel T Hohner, Alex W Thompson, M Lipsky, James Ryan, F W Rhodes, A Tillinghast, Mrs W H A Bell, C Cooper (W, F & Co's Messenger), and nine in the steerage

MODEL ADVERTISEMENT OF THE OLD TIMES.—The following capital advertisement is from an old Connecticut paper: "John Stibbing, Taylor, Shoemaker and Astronomer. I also keeps journeymen to do all kinds of car ters and bl ksmiths works, and to hang bells, etc. Any ladey or gentelman as bespeaks a cote or a pair of b the may have it on Friday or Saturday without fail. N. B. Being rumored that I intend leaving off business on account of my elected church warding, I hope my friends won't give ears to such blood thirsty Reports. John Stibbing."

P Y NOMINATIONS.—Pursuant to a call of the County Committee, made May 1st, for the purpose of ing precinct officers, the North Portland delegation met at the Union Club Room and having been called to order by the Chairman R Weeks, Mr. Levi Andrew was by acclamation declared the nominee for Justice of the Peace for Washington Precinct. Mr Philip Saunders was nominated for Constable in said precinct

SUIT TO PROTECT A PATENT.—A suit of some importance was tried last week in the District Court, at Vancouver, A. Myers vs. J. Heater. Two suits were brought, one for a perpetual injunction to restrain the de from infringing the right of plaintiff to the patent of Leffel's American Double Turbine water wheel; the other for damages. The former case went to the jury on Friday and they returned a verdict for plaintiff; the other suit was compromised and dismissed, the def t paying an agreed sum as damages

. —We are informed by a gentleman residing on Main street, between Fifth and Sixth, that some boys entered his premises night before last, away flour pots, &c. As boys are, betimes, on the speculate, it must have been done with this in view. We refrain from giving the names of the at this time, but in case of a repetition of like offences, we may do so. Such transactions are con- ptible and mean, to say the least.

PORTLAND ACADEMY AND FEMALE SEMINARY.—The next term of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary will open on Monday, the 4th inst. The term just closed has been an unusually prosperous one, affording, in the increased number of pupils, a marked expression of the public confidence in the management of the school. The whole number of pupils enrolled was two hundred and of whom seventy one were females, and one hundred and thirty were males.

—The trial at Vancouver of the Chinook was concluded on Thursday. The jury, after returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree against Michael Welch, and the was to be pronounced yesterday. SPEECH BY GOVERNOR WOODS.—By invitation, Governor Woods will deliver an address in on pending political issues on the evening of the 5th inst. Due notice will be given of the speaking.

Of the numerous fortifications which three years ago surrounded Washington, but one, Fort Whipple, lying west of Arlington, now remains in any state of completeness. It has few or no guns mounted, and contains a small garrison whose principal duty it is to guard the ammunition stored there.

Satanello the Italian bandit has a way of treating prisoners which may be considered effective. Thirty of his men at once plunge poniards into the body of the victim while another splits him through the head and down the back with an enormous hatchet. The wounds frequently prove fatal.

The farmers in the West are beginning to plant forest trees on their prairie lands, as a protection for their dwellings against the cold northern blasts in winter and to obtain a supply of fuel and timber.

THE LAST SENSATION IN HATS is the spring styles received per J. L. Stephens and introduced by J A Daly, 103 Front street

FURNITURE.—We call the attention of those in want of furniture, to the advertisement of Hurgren & Shindler. We have seen their warerooms, and must say that we have never seen a finer selection of furniture. Messrs H & S have a well established business, buying their eastern goods direct from the manufacturers. Parties purchasing in their line, may rely upon honorable dealing and low prices

NEW STYLE BUSINESS COATS.—Barman Bros, new business coats are the most elegant garments in Portland. Their new shaped pantaloons are worn by all fashionables. The suits made in their merchant tailoring establishment are now leading the fashions in Portland.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive and from both sexes
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day
SOLD EVERYWHERE.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 695 AND 697 FRONT ST
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of its consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice

Mr Chase and the Presidency

So much has been said about Mr Chase taking the Presidential nomination from the Democrats that he has felt [illegible] the Cincinnati Gazette def[illegible] tion. Therefore in that paper we find [illegible] statements the purport of which [illegible] the Democratic party [illegible] serious in the talk about nominating the Chief Justice for the Presidency on the Democratic ticket has done so without consulting the views of the Chief Justice. It [illegible] marks

There is of course no ground for supposing that Mr Chase would surrender his lifelong principles for the sake of the Democratic nomination or even for the sake of [illegible] tion. Neither is it to be supposed that the Democratic party will slide up [illegible] platform in order to secure his acceptance of a nomination. The talk therefore only shows the desperate condition of the party. Had they any well grounded hope of success under any other leadership Mr Chase would be the last man in the country they would look to

Two questions will enter into the Presidential canvass—Reconstruction and the Finances. It is remarked that in regard to the first, Mr Chase is with the Republicans in all except "with reference to the military features of the laws. He is "now, and always has been, a strong advocate of impartial suffrage" and therefore in antagonism with the Democratic party. It is pertinently remarked

"Those who believe that the Democratic party are likely to make this forward movement, and plant themselves squarely upon Republican principles may talk with some show of consistency about the Chief Justice as the candidate of the party. One thing is certain, and for this statement we have the highest authority that if the Democrats run Mr Chase, they must come to him and stand upon his platform. He will not go to them."

The remainder of the article in question—inspired by Judge Chase himself—is as follows

'In regard to the financial question Mr Chase agrees in main with the Eastern portion of the Democracy. This is to say, he is in favor of paying the debt honestly as was intended when it was created, and of observing in good faith every pledge made by the Government to its creditors. He is in favor of appreciating the value of greenbacks and not of depreciating them by a further issue, and when greenbacks shall, under his policy, become equal to gold, then there will be no question about the kind of money in which the debt should be paid

"The policy of the Western Democracy however, is radically different from this, and if Mr Chase should be nominated as the Democratic candidate the Western theory of inflation and repudiation would have to give way to the policy to which we have referred.

"It may further be stated that Mr Chase has given no encouragement whatever to the leaders who have been using his name in this [illegible]. If, however, the Democratic party should nominate him on this platform the points of which we have indicated he would probably accept, though he has never said as much.

"The public who may know the character of the Democratic leaders and principles they are contending for, can judge from what has been said as to the prospects of Mr Chase becoming a Democratic candidate for the Presidency. If he should, by any possibility be placed in that position, the only issue in the approaching campaign would be simply that of men, [illegible], the platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties would be the same."

A S[illegible] Of [illegible] CALIFORNIA —C[illegible] to be a [illegible] dab of yellow on the [illegible] of North America. It produced hid[illegible] and G[illegible] a. California was up to [illegible] of the [illegible] of gold, deemed the [illegible] country in the world. After gold was found times got more lively and [illegible] came off every day. Women in the [illegible] scarce at first, but the reverse is the [illegible], especially in San Francisco where a man can get married every day in the year, if he has money and a mind to.

Mrs Cady Stanton, who has been canvassing among Congressmen at Washington for her new paper, says she is surprised to learn on the best authority, that probably two-thirds of the set speeches read from manuscript are not the productions of those who deliver them, but are prepared by newspaper reporters, and the literary gentlemen at Washington.

A Republican County Convention in Illinois has resolved "that we do not desire a President whose mouth, like the Mississippi river, is always [illegible]"

[illegible] AND COMMERCE.

[illegible] REVIEW

PORTLAND May 1, 1868.

The [illegible] New York [illegible] of gold, April 30th, was 139⅝ [illegible] at San Francisco 71½@72.

The New York market for wheat, is $1.50@1.50 Liverpool wheat [illegible]

The San Francisco market for wheat and flour is extremely dull; the [illegible] is quoted, $2.30@2.50 according to quality—the latter an outside price for choice

Our local [illegible] market is very much depressed. We quote Imperial Standard Vaughn's and other leading [illegible] at $6 50 [illegible], of [illegible] from the prices maintained for several months. During the month just closed the [illegible] and exports of produce have been unusually large, the aggregate showing larger figures than for any preceding month in the history of the country. The [illegible] to come forward are [illegible] as being [illegible]—perhaps not less than one quarter of the crop of 1867. The following is a comparative statement of receipts and exports for the month of April 1867 and 1868:

RECEIPTS.

	1867	1868
Wheat bags	2 400	20 385
Flour [illegible]	40,478	[illegible]

EXPORTS.

	1867	1868
Wheat, bags	[illegible]	24 127
Flour [illegible]	46 363	138,112

The shipments hence are mostly going into store at San Francisco, very little being sold

The general tone of the [illegible] jobbing market is encouraging. There has been a decided improvement during the week in hardware resulting from the [illegible] of building not only in this city but in many of the towns of the interior. Orders from the Columbia valley have come in freely. Trade in dry goods has been rather active in staples and some spring styles of fancy goods. As usual groceries have been moving pretty [illegible]. The [illegible] trade is notably improving as the season advances. Upon the whole the merchants of this city have good reason to be satisfied with both the present and prospective condition of things. The interior papers continue to give good accounts of business

SHIPLEY'S PATENT PACIFIC

TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE

The all high priced unequalled and unrivalled wheel having been PLAYED OUT by a fair working trial made by Mr H. Kelly at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature

Mr H W SHIPLEY—Sir In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one over shot and three Leffel wheels 14, 15 and 18-inch diameters. When I [illegible] your 15 inch wheel for the 18-inch Leffel wheel though [illegible] it worked the machinery like a top using 52 [illegible] water per minute more than the 14 inch Leffel. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it [illegible] be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffel [illegible] gave no [illegible] power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water per minute. After some months I replaced your wheel and I am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to [illegible] severe tests. For instance while running the circular saw in a log which squared 16 inches I added the planer with a 9 inch knife, cutting from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch depth, without in the least slacking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels, I am satisfied that your wheel with gates [illegible] eighth of an inch open, [illegible] power as the Leffel with [illegible]. At half gate your wheel gives [illegible] the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate [illegible] it exceeds that of the Leffel [illegible]. At quarter gate the Leffel [illegible] with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr Shipley was not present at either of the trials of this wheel [illegible] at the first and absent from the State at the second trial

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering [illegible] once from the effects of [illegible] licence or from virus absorbed [illegible] to [illegible] their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death [illegible] Let parents, guardians [illegible] suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon [illegible] who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities [illegible] their skill in curing all diseases in a few days [illegible] upon the public by using the names of [illegible] Europe and other places. Better refer [illegible] make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with certainty the following train of morbid symptoms [illegible] scientific medical means [illegible] Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of [illegible] uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs [illegible] vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs [illegible] night sweats monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained speedily immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus [illegible] to entrap the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes [illegible] find their former occupations [illegible] Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way [illegible] to [illegible] is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for [illegible] physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus. There is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates [illegible] patients letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

INSTITUTE.

⁂ CONSULTATIONS [illegible] FREE.

⁂ [illegible] CURES [illegible] OR NO PAY REQUIRED

⁂ IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or [illegible] to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate [illegible] complaints treated [illegible] Institute, but the Doctor [illegible] his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping [illegible] insidiousness the very life of its victims, in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so delicate a subject as the decay of manly vigor the [illegible] vital principle of life the ignorant may [illegible] but the desire to point out to those who [illegible] guish and decay the true cause of their [illegible] great an incentive to be forced into [illegible] truded the terrible [illegible] of Seminal W[illegible] one but the practical specialist who [illegible] treatment can tell but its presence can be [illegible] the most inexperienced by noting the [illegible] toms. Weakness of the back and [illegible] feelings loss of muscular power [illegible] cold feet or hands accompanied by hot heads [illegible] of [illegible] short breath [illegible] sion to society confusion of the [illegible] nightly [illegible] least excitement trembling [illegible] regular [illegible] variable [illegible] etc.

YOUNG MAN if you experience any of the symptoms enumerated above, [illegible] present is the golden moment in which you [illegible] health and happiness. You may feel [illegible] you have ever practised the vice of [illegible] SECRET HABITS, you have the seeds of [illegible] system and their [illegible] will [illegible] or later dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground leaving you a helpless, abject [illegible] disease that declares itself at once [illegible] est danger; for while the patient is being [illegible] affection of the Heart Lungs Brain, or Dig[illegible] tion, he sinks into a general debility that [illegible] the list of the victims of the terrible [illegible] Weakness

See in the best form and lengths [illegible] victim of the [illegible] vice. Mark the [illegible] destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and [illegible]

Drowsiness is one of the [illegible] first it is easily shaken off, but it gives [illegible] great disinclination to pursue his [illegible] mind becomes [illegible] and restless nights days of depression

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your fondest hopes and blast your [illegible] aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural [illegible] This is an error of the first [illegible] unprepared for the exigencies of the [illegible] denly fails and he finds himself in a [illegible] from which there is but the slightest hope of [illegible] Or if the marriage should result in [illegible] they [illegible] distorted decrepid and degenerate. This is [illegible] ble to both sexes, whether married or [illegible] times of life

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms [illegible] complaint or if your acts have been [illegible] to them but by instant application [illegible] only hope of health and happiness. The [illegible] mercury or other deleterious drugs [illegible] time, always guaranteed, and full and [illegible] at [illegible]

The afflicted are assured of every [illegible]

PERSONS AFFLICTED [illegible] VENEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the [illegible] the Institute the number of cases of V[illegible] that have been treated show a record unequalled by [illegible] in the world, and the [illegible] that has in the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other [illegible]

Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of these [illegible] not only uncalled for but actually [illegible] established medical principle that these [illegible] by entering the blood ruin the [illegible] life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases [illegible] and finds no difficulty in [illegible] those of long [illegible] without submitting the patient to such [illegible] draw upon him the slightest suspicion or [illegible] neglect his business whether in-doors or [illegible] diet need not be changed. Cures [illegible] no pay required

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted [illegible] requires medical or surgical assistance, the [illegible] Where is there a physician competent to [illegible] relief and whose respectable standing [illegible] command him to the confidence of the [illegible] Doctor understanding how imperatively [illegible] requirements are feels called upon to [illegible] calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and [illegible] [illegible] years and is fully qualified to [illegible] both medically and surgically not in [illegible] but in as thorough a manner as years of study and [illegible]—both in hospitals and private [illegible] then from the hands of the unqualified, [illegible] designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one [illegible] and sympathize with and befriend them in [illegible] in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be [illegible] consultation by letter or otherwise free. [illegible] in all weakness and trouble incidental to the [illegible] Private apartments are provided when [illegible] be had all the advantages of unremitted [illegible] of the Doctor and the most skillful and [illegible]

To CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons, either male or [illegible] residing in the interior are often deterred from [illegible] the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, [illegible] the expense of a visit to the city. To such [illegible] that a plain statement of the symptoms and [illegible] bearing upon the complaint, will [illegible] for them so that they can be cured at [illegible] have any false delicacy about writing, no matter [illegible] nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor and will be [illegible] the utmost confidence and either be returned or [illegible]
